Hon. E. A. Jones, Ohio State School Commissioner, will be present at one session.

Forenoon sessions will begin at 9 o'clock standard; afternoon sessions at 1 o'clock. By a unanimous vote last year, a fee of One Dollar will be charged for enrollment. This will entitle you to a ticket for the Concert Thursday evening.

By Section 4091 of School Code, teachers receive pay for attendance at the Institute, but you must hold a "certificate of full regular daily attendance." Therefore, it will be necessary for you to enroll Monday Morning. Let us enroll early and make this Institute the most successful ever held in Geauga county. Our instructors are the best to be obtained. Success will depend upon your presence.

Teachers desiring boarding places should inform the Secretary. Rates: Private families 75c a day, 25c a meal; Hotels, rates reasonable.

President, Supt. C. E. Jenks; Vice Pres., Mrs. Clara Morris Bartlett; Secretary, Supt. L. Virgil Mills; Executive Committee, M. H. Norton, H. S. Foote, L. Virgil Mills.

A Daily for 75 Cents.

By special arrangement with the publishers we are able to make, for the dull season only, an unprecedented clubbing offer to all readers of this paper. The NATIONAL DAILY REVIEW is what its name signifies, a truly national daily paper and daily review of the events of the world. It is issued every day except Sunday, four pages crowded full of information, the cream of the day's news condensed and plainly stated, all trash and sensationalism eliminated, markets and special features and a special daily magazine article by a well known writer. It is clean and wholesome, edited and published by experienced newspaper men, not an experiment but a newspaper read and appreciated by thousands in every state of the Union.

The NATIONAL DAILY REVIEW is a newspaper for busy men and women.

The paper should be delivered on early morning rural mail routes in practically all the territory within 500 miles of Chicago, and should reach places within 1,000 miles on the day of its date.

Samples may be had on request from the publishers, 1322 Wabash Ave., Chicago, or they may be seen at this office.

For a short time we can offer to all new subscribers or to old subscribers paying up and in advance, the weekly GEAUGA COUNTY RECORD for one year and the NATIONAL DAILY REVIEW one year, both for $1.75.

Send to this office at once or call for particulars.

The offer remains open only until September 1 and is made to introduce the NATIONAL DAILY REVIEW in this section.

Capt. Edward Paine was the first postmaster of Chardon, and he served a great many years, until Judge B. W. F. Avery, father of our townsman, D. F. Avery, was appointed.
